THE DUTIES OF THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

If we are daughters, in truth, we must render an account of our stewardship to the King, for ours is heartsearching work—life's most sacred duty. The very first obligation is prayer. We are powerless to do anything without divine aid, and by this help comes patience.

Patience in great reverses, and more patience in the little harassing annoyances which comes to us every day more particularly on Monday mornings when Satan finds a good soil to sow tares among the wheat.

The second obligation is charity. Sympathy is costly, it is the exquisite alabaster vase broken at the Savior's feet and none of the King's Daughters are too poor to render this service.

Dr. Johnson said: "Spice and ill-nature are the most expensive luxuries in life," then, if our life-fores must be spent upon others, in His name let us spend it in kindness and loving tender mercy.

"Our murmurings are as arrows shot at God; and their only effect as they fall back is the wounding of the heart that sends them."

As individuals we are members, yet as individuals we may work separately, each doing her part as is the duty of every Christian to work.

"We have not passed this way hitherto and we shall never pass this way again."

The third obligation, then, is work. To speak kind words, to make people happy, to keep faith in God and in each other, find the best and truest friend.

It has been truly said: "That although no woman has written an 'Iliad,' 'A Paradise Lost,' have designed 'No Apollon Belvedere,' painted no 'Last Judgment,' they have done some things greater and better than all this. It is at their knees that virtuous men and women have been trained—the most excellent productions of the world."

The patient, gentle schooling of Monica turned Augustine from a profligate to a saint. The blessed memory of a mother's lesson that changed John Newton from a blasphemous sailor to an earnest minister of God. A loving mother's tender influence that made George Washington a man of such truth, nobleness and power, and we have influence for good or for evil the effects of which shall follow us through life and be witness for or against us at the bar of judgment.

The last request of our dear Savior was that His followers teach the gospel, and preach it to every creature. This gospel is one of love to God and love to man and yet how often we allow days, weeks and months to pass without speaking in His name to our dear ones or trying in the simplest way to help the infirmities of those with whom we come in contact. Our order is a religious order of service, Christian but not sectarian, and its members may be found in all churches and almost all nations. The members are bound individually and collectively to serve the needy and the suffering, to consider and be helpful in every good work, choosing some field of labor, but never escaping the obligation of service.

We talk of fashion, politics, gossip, scandal and other topics, but when we speak of eternity and death, it is in a half-hearted manner and can not do much good, for if we are ashamed of Him in this wicked world He will be ashamed of us when He comes with the holy angels.

In that day shall rewards be given for work, and only the unbelievers and unfaithful shall be cast out.

It is a serious thought—this being a King's daughter—and we should shine for Him every day.

Doing good deeds, forgetting old wrongs; forgiving trespasses against us; scattering seeds of kindness, and growing flowers of love and beauty all about our doorway.

Taking for our motto, daily, the beautiful text of the "Silver Cross."

Why should I murmur or complain, O'er lack of sun, or need of rain; I shall not want for anything.

For I am a Daughter of the King.

FAITH NOT NECESSARY.

You may be just as skeptical and pessimistic as you please. Kodol will digest what you eat whether you eat or not. You can put your food in a bowl, pour a little Kodol Dyspepsia Cure on it and it will digest it the same as it will in your stomach. It can't help but cure Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is curing hundreds and thousands—some had faith and some didn't. Kodol will cure you if medicine can cure you. Whether you have faith in it or not. Sold by J. W. Gayle.

FRIGHTFUL SUFFERING RELIEVED.

Suffering frightfully from the virulent poisons of undigested food, C. G. Grayson, of Lula, Miss., took Dr. King's New Life Pills, "with the result," he writes, "that I was cured." All stomach and bowel disorders give way to their tonic, laxative properties. 25c at all druggists, guaranteed.
